SLO 2.1 Demonstrate an awareness of non verbal communication.

Non-Verbal Communication Worksheets.

1. List 5 means of non-verbal communications.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

2. List the 3 dimensions of an individual’s personal space and include the distance.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
3. Explain the following illustrations.

- [Image of a raised hand]
- [Image of a pointing hand]
- [Image of a handshake]
- [Image of a sitting person and a standing person]
4. Describe 3 hand-to-face gestures that indicate deceit.

____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________

5. Watch the clip on How to Spot a Liar. Apart from body gestures, how else does this FBI agent detect dishonesty?

____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
SLO 2.2 Identify and critically analyse examples of non-verbal communication

6. Watch the following film extract from The Pursuit of Happiness.

Write critically about the body language displayed in this film extract. Take note of the following:

- Hand shaking/ first impressions
- Chris’s hand gestures used when offering explanation for his outfit
- Chris’s hand gestures when questioned by panel
- Body language when Chris speaks about his personal abilities/skills
SLO 2.3 Convey a message using non-verbal communication.

Play a game of charades to communicate non-verbally.

- Briefly describe how you took part in this activity.

  ___________________________________________________________________
  ___________________________________________________________________
  ___________________________________________________________________
  ___________________________________________________________________
  ___________________________________________________________________
  ___________________________________________________________________

- What was the most difficult aspect of this activity?

  ___________________________________________________________________
  ___________________________________________________________________
  ___________________________________________________________________
  ___________________________________________________________________
  ___________________________________________________________________
  ___________________________________________________________________

I _____________________ have fully participated in this non-verbal activity.

Learner signed:_______________________

Tutor signed:_________________________
SL0 2.4 Prepare and use visual aids to communicate a message.

Prepare a visual aid.

As part of unit 3 you have already prepared a visual aid with your power-point presentation slides.

- Correct any mistakes
- Print them out
- Put them in unit 2 of your folder
- Write a supporting piece which explains the following:
  - Why did you choose to do this visual aid
  - How did you plan it out
  - Why did you decide to use the font you did
  - Why you picked your colours
  - Why did you pick the photos you did
  - Do you think this is an effective visual aid
SLO 2.5 Interpret and evaluate images

Interpret and evaluate 3 images of your choice.

1. Chose any 3 images from magazines, newspapers, brochures, internet maps, diagrams, etc.
2. Interpret and analyse the image in relation to:
   i. Colour
   ii. Content
   iii. Text
   iv. Message conveyed
   v. Overall effectiveness
3. Your favourite picture and why.